

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

To the Coast.
Mrs. A. W. Sterling and nephews, Robert and Albert Robinson, left Saturday for Pittsburgh en route to Atlantic City, N. J., where they will spend some time with Clarence D. Robinson, father of the boys, who is recuperating there from a recent severe illness.

To Have Exchange and Bazaar.
The helpful class of the First Baptist Sunday school will hold an Easter bazaar and exchange on Friday and Saturday of this week at the harness store of Thomas Hall on Main street. The ladies will have for sale Easter novelties and fancy articles of all kinds and on Saturday will hold an exchange in connection with the bazaar and will have for sale cakes, pies, candies, bread and Easter eggs. A number of useful and pretty articles will be sold at reasonable prices and the public is invited to call.

Secure Tickets Early.
Members of the Woman's club who intend attending the annual club luncheon to be given next Monday at one o'clock at the Masonic temple are asked to secure their tickets as early this week as possible. Miss Callie Frey, recording secretary of the club, is in charge of the ticket sale and they may be secured from her or at Martins drug store and Portney's drug store. The catering committee of Christ Episcopal church will prepare and serve the menu and the event promises to be one of the most enjoyable of the club year. Following the luncheon at three o'clock the regular and last meeting of the club for the year will be held and a feature of the program will be a dramatic interpretation by Mrs. Junior Brown of Kingwood.

Reservations must be in by Thursday of this week and club members may take as many guests as they so desire. Tickets will sell for $1.25 per ticket.

Elks Dance.
Shinn's jazz orchestra will furnish the music for the Elks Easter dance which will be given on Thursday evening, April 6. Details for the event are being worked out by the Elks and it promises to be a most enjoyable event.

Returned From Show.

Notes of Interest In Railroad Circles

This is pay day on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

J. F. Shafferman, supervisor of the M. R. branch of the B. & O. railroad, and H. H. Tederick, supervisor of the Fairmont Terminal, B. & O., attended a staff meeting held in the division engineer's office in Grafton on Saturday.

B. & O. engine 4011 drew 90 loaded cars out of Fairmont yesterday afternoon. This is about the heaviest train that has ever been taken out of the local yards. Jess Kemper was the conductor. Engine 4083 drew 31 loads west. Trains were run every two hours on Sunday and an extra run was included in addition.

Official car 101, Cumberland and Pennsylvania railroad, took Col. and Mrs. Watson to New York city on Sunday.

The Owens Glass plant has its own shifter at work in its own yard for the purpose of spotting its cars.

CONES THAT THE KIDDIES CRAVE

How they love those ice cream cones when they are so generously filled with Martin's delicious ice cream. It isn't only their taste that makes them love our ice cream—it's because it's so pure and nourishing that their system and digestion approves it. We make our own ice cream and guarantee it to be made of pure cream only. Mother, have your children buy their cones here.

SILKEN FROCKS

Achieve Much Loveliness

Most anyone can be a Dresden shepherdess this spring for panniers and snug bodices are de rigueur. In pompadour silks, delectable afternoon gowns carry out the Watteau effect. Silken novelty weaves taffeta and satin frocks are delightfully plaited and puffed, embroidered in yarns, silks and metallic threads and fringes. And there is such a flattering youthfulness to everyone.

TIME FOR NEW RUGS

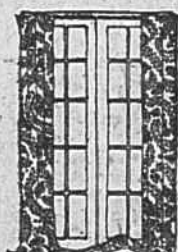

Alarming bare spots and worn edges of Rugs come to light with spring housecleaning. Good domestic rugs of many weaves are here to replace them. The variety permits selection of one to fit in with your old decorative scheme or a brand new one.

Bright Cretonnes for the Home

Home can be made a cheery spot with sunshine inside as well as out with radiant Cretonnes from which to make hangings, furniture slips and porch luncheon sets.

We don't believe you will find a better variety of pretty Cretonnes in the state of West Virginia—come in and see if this is not true.

Coats Delightful as Well as Practical

There's no gainsaying one of the season's Coats of camel's hair, polo cloth, tweed or any one of the fine woollens is a source of never ending delight so long as a thread last. They are built to wear over frocks and suits for protective purposes and are adorned with distinctive touches, purely decorative which add to the wearer's pleasure.

A Pretty Shod Foot is the First Step Toward a Well-Groomed Figure

The problem of the well-dressed woman starts with footwear and neat, trimly shod feet go far toward its solution.

Often the appearance of the otherwise well-dressed woman is entirely marred by ordinary ill-fitting, hastily selected shoes.

The woman who wears one of the smart, trim, low shoes that we are displaying now is assured of being well groomed.
